If you have failed any of these subjects, please take the following into account:

1. Subjects with only a change in name and/or content

(Introduction to Tourism Law, Computer and Study Skills, Introduction to Tourism Business, and Quantitative Techniques Applied to Tourism):

→ You will be able to attend the new subjects and be assessed normally according to the new curriculum.

2. Introduction to Tourism Economics

This subject is undergoing a more significant change. You will have two options:

- Option A: Attend classes for the new subject 107762 - Tourism Economics, complete the continuous assessment and tasks as instructed by the teaching staff.

- Option B: Choose single assessment, using the materials from the 2024–25 academic year, which will be available in a specific area of the virtual campus.

3. Tourism Sector Analysis

This subject will no longer be offered. The teaching staff will create a space in the virtual campus with the 2024–25 course materials, offer tutoring sessions if needed, and a single assessment exam will be held on the official exam date.
